APPENDIX 1

Dog Policy

Here at Stone Cottage we know that doggies need holidays just like humans, so you are welcome to bring him/her along at a small cost of £30 per dog. (Sometimes we ask for security returnable deposit of £200. This is to cover any damages that may occur. This will be returned after your stay). We are particularly suitable for a doggy holiday as our farm land adjoins the cottage and there are wonderful forest walks nearby.

However we would ask that you considered the following points so that our future doggy guests (and their owners!) enjoy their holidays as much as we hope you do.

1. Canine companions often love to have their own blankets with them – and humans prefer beds, sofas and chairs free from doggy hairs! Therefore your dog needs to spend its holiday downstairs in the kitchen area (which is huge) and to use his own blanket/bed for sleeping and resting. Please let us know if you would like to use a stair gate to keep the doggy downstairs and we can provide it for you.
2. Please, can you make sure that you clean up after your doggy. You will find some poop bags in the 'dog welcome basket' in the house, for use on the lawn in the garden area.
3. As we know the weather can be unpredictable, so if it gets wet and muddy, you will find a short hose in the left corner of the garden for washing his/hers paws. We can provide an old towel, please ask!
4. Dogs get lonely too, so please do not leave your dog in the property on its own!!! It is likely that it will become agitated and therefore it can scratch the furniture or it can hurt itself.
